

Commission to Study Long-Term
Care Workforce Issues

Members:

Sen. Herbig, Chair

Rep. Fay, Chair

Rep. Holly Stover

Rep. Abigail Griffin

Sen. Jeff Timberlake

Mary Jane Richards (representative for statewide association of facility-based long-term care providers)

Don Harden, Catholic Charities of Maine (representative of organization providing statewide homemaker services through state-funded ISS program)

Dr. Sandy Butler, University of Maine (representative of an institution of higher education engaged in workforce development)

Betsy Sawyer-Manter, SeniorsPlus (representative of a service coordination agency for people receiving home based and community based long term care)

Debbie Gilmer (representative of an organization promoting independent living for individuals with disabilities)

Amy Winston (representative of a business that acts as a labor intermediary helping unemployed and underemployed people)

Rachel Small (a direct care worker)

Michael Stair, Care & Comfort (home-based long-term care provider who is member of a statewide association of home based long-term care providers)

Kathy Callnan (representative of a statewide association of nonprofit housing and senior service programming)

Victoria Copp (a representative of an organization providing services to persons with intellectual disabilities and autism)

Brenda Gallant, Long Term Care Ombudsman
Commissioner Lambrew, Department of Health and Human Services

Karen Fraser, Department of Labor

Staff:

Anna Broome, Senior Legislative Analyst

Lynne Caswell, Legislative Analyst

(207) 287-1670