

STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIRST LEGISLATURE
SECOND REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber

Wednesday

January 28, 2004

Senate called to order by President Beverly C. Daggett of Kennebec County.

Prayer by Reverend Earl Edgerly, Farmington Baptist Church.

REVEREND EDGERLY: Let us pray together. All mighty God, what a wonderful time of opportunity we have to serve the people of this state. We gather here today to deliberate the business at hand, and in so doing, acknowledging that the many decisions that are made here today will impact our constituents and all of the people of our communities for years to come.

We acknowledge that we are privileged to live within a state and a nation that is founded upon a solvent God and the faith and courage of our forefathers with a promise for freedom and opportunity and justice for all people. A promise that elicits a respect for all people, regardless of gender and color, race, creed, education, accomplishment or lack thereof, economic status or social standing. A respect that permits the fair exchange of ideas within the confines of seeking what is best for the state and its communities, the individuals and families, the businesses and organizations of which it is comprised.

Oh God, I pray You will grant the courage for these people to not only speak to those issues of their concerns and those of their constituents, but to do so in a courteous manner that evokes the same from others. To realize that we will not necessarily agree on every issue, to recycle personal agendas without concern for the common good will only invite trepidation and ill will. I pray that we all rise above partisan politics, and with clear vision and genuine concern, seek what is best for that quality of life for each of our neighbors in the State of Maine. Grant vision to us in planning and in a willingness to change, remembering that the codes and the laws are to be our servant and not our master, for the benefit of all. Lord, I would pray that You will watch over these special public servants that are charged with such an awesome responsibility because of the positions they hold in our state government. I would ask that You grant them strength and endurance coupled with great wisdom and patience to accomplish the tasks at hand. We are grateful for their allegiance to their given responsibilities. I pray for Your guidance for them and blessing upon them, for Your glory and for our good. Amen.

S.P. 679

JOINT RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING AND SUPPORTING HEALTHY COMMUNITIES

WHEREAS, health is the result of much more than just medical care. People are healthier when they live in nurturing environments and are involved in the life of their communities; and

WHEREAS, Maine citizens have formed Healthy Communities and Planned Approach to Community Health, "PATCH," coalitions across the State to improve the health of their communities; and

WHEREAS, the Healthy Communities and PATCH coalitions are a broad and sharing network of interrelated groups of citizen volunteers consisting of individuals, families, businesses, schools, churches, health care providers, government and others with similar concerns and values on health and community issues; and

WHEREAS, Maine is a leader in establishing a network of healthy communities largely due to the effectiveness of the volunteer leaders and organizations in meeting local health needs; and

WHEREAS, the dedication and efforts of the citizen volunteers deserve our strongest support and encouragement; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That We, the Members of the One Hundred and Twenty-first Legislature, now assembled in the Second Regular Session, on behalf of the people we represent, take this opportunity to honor the ideals and accomplishments of the Healthy Communities and PATCH coalitions on the occasion of Healthy Communities Day, January 28, 2004; and be it further

RESOLVED: That suitable copies of this resolution, duly authenticated by the Secretary of State, be transmitted to the Department of Human Services, Bureau of Health in token of the esteem in which we hold the citizen volunteers of the Healthy Communities and PATCH coalitions.

Ordered sent down forthwith for concurrence.

Joint Resolution in Memoriam:

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

Philip L. Geyelin, of Washington, D.C., a journalist with the Associated Press and the Wall Street Journal and winner of the 1970 Pulitzer Prize for editorial writing while he was the editor of the Op-Ed section of the Washington Post. He was a former president of the Gridiron Club, a former board member of Alliance Francoise and a member of the Overseas Press Club. Mr. Geyelin had a deep appreciation and love for Maine, its natural beauty and its people. He and his family have been longtime summer residents of Mount Desert Island. He gave generously of his time, talent and expertise. His annual summer lectures, delivered at the Claremont Hotel on various aspects of Middle East politics, will be long remembered. At the time of his death, Mr. Geyelin was a member of the Board of Trustees of the College of the Atlantic in Bar Harbor. He is survived by his wife of 54 years, Cecilia "Sherry" Parker Sherman Geyelin, 4 children and 6 grandchildren. We extend our sympathy to them and join them in honoring Philip Geyelin;

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Hancock, Senator Damon.

Senator DAMON: Thank you, Madame President, men and women of the Senate. I rise to tell you a little more about my friend, Phil Geyelin. In addition to what you have just heard of his accomplishments on the world scene, Phil and Sherry were true friends of Maine and of this Senator and his family. I believe that Phil and the rest of his family came to adopt Maine not only for its natural beauty, but more so, in the conversations that I had with him on frequent occasions, for the quality of its people. Of you and me and the rest of the people who populate this great state, our honesty, our hard work, our perseverance in time of difficulty. The Geyelin family extended tremendous generosity to not only the people of Mt. Desert Island, but also to this Senator and his family in times of need. I want to be able to take the opportunity, and I am glad that you have allowed me to do so, to commemorate Phil and to give our warmest sympathies to Sherry and the rest of the family. Thank you, Madame President.

ADOPTED.

Sent down for concurrence.
