SENATOR THIBODEAU: Lord, it is a privilege and an honor to serve in this august Body and it's days like today when the weather is beautiful outside and we're all reminded why we love to live in this great state. Lord, I know that the work that we'll do here today is probably brief but it's good to see our friends, our colleagues, and people that we care about on both sides of the aisle. Lord, I'm particularly pleased to see Senator Jackson here today. Lord, I just pray that everything that we do in our lives we remember that this world is temporary but there is an eternity. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Senator VOLK: Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I rise today in support of the nomination of Matthew Tice of Scarborough. Matt is actually a former neighbor of mine and someone that I've known now for probably close to 20 years and he served in the Cumberland County District Attorney's Office for 21 years. Prior to that he worked in New York State in private practice and he received his undergraduate degree from Bethany College in West Virginia and his JD from Syracuse University. I know in my conversations with the District Attorney, Stephanie Anderson, that Mr. Tice has been an incredibly valuable team member for that office and that they are going to miss him tremendously. But the citizens of Maine will continue to benefit from his public service as he serves for us in our court system. I just want to wish him the best of luck and thank him for his service and thank his family for being here today.
