

STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE
SECOND SPECIAL SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Monday
June 25, 2018

Senate called to order by President Michael D. Thibodeau of Waldo County.

Prayer by Senator Susan A. Deschambault of York County.

SENATOR DESCHAMBAULT: Good morning. I have to say the prayer and I am story teller, so bear with me while I tell you the backstory of why I'm going to say what I'm saying today. In 1971 I graduated from college. My Mom and Dad were there. My Mom handed me an envelope and I thought, 'Okay, a card. Hopefully money in there.' Dad gave me a wink and a smile. Dad was a car salesman and he knew what I wanted. Not long after that Dad helped me get the car I always wanted, an American Motors fire engine red Gremlin. I loved it. It's what I wanted. I took that car and brought it to Augusta when I had my first job. I kept telling Dad, 'Something's wrong with the car.' Dad would take it out and would bring it to the shop and it would be okay. But when I lived up here by myself I thought, 'There's something wrong with this car. I made a mistake.' Gremlins, you don't see many of those now. Come to find out, I called Dad and said, 'Take the car back. I don't like it.' He says the one question I'll never forget, 'So when's the last time you changed the oil?' Oil? What oil? I didn't know. Dad didn't give me any advice when he gave me the gift that he wanted to give me and who reads the manual anyways. Now that envelope Mom gave me didn't have a card, didn't have any money. Mom, being Mom, gave me a book of inspirational poems and basically said, 'Okay, smarty pants, you've got your college degree, you've got your career ahead of you. You think you know everything. But you have to read these poems.' See the car died after two years. It's what I wanted. Mom gave me what I needed and I've had this for 47 years. So I will read to you what has inspired me. Mom said I needed a foundation. I said, 'For crying out loud, Mom, I just finished 16 years of Catholic schooling.' But she felt that wasn't enough. This has held me, so let us pray.

Often your tasks will be many in life and more than you think you can do. Often the road will be rugged and the hills insurmountable too. But always remember the hills ahead are never as steep as they seem, and with faith in your heart start upwards and climb until you reach your dream. For nothing in life that is worthy is ever too hard to achieve if you have the courage to try it and you have the faith to believe. For faith is a force that is greater than knowledge or power or skill and many defeats turn to triumph if you trust in God's wisdom and will, for faith is a mover of mountains. There's nothing that God cannot do, so start out today with faith in your heart and climb until your dream comes true. Amen.

Pledge of Allegiance led by Senator Roger J. Katz of Kennebec County.

Off Record Remarks

Senator CARPENTER of Aroostook was granted unanimous consent to address the Senate on the Record.

Senator CARPENTER: Mr. President, last week we addressed the death of the First Lady Barbara Bush and also my dear friend Gerry Conley. Two people with very prominent Maine connections. I just happened to notice in the paper this morning the death of Dorothy Collins, the widow of the late Sam Collins. Sam Collins sat down here in the Knox County seat to my far right in the Maine Senate, and I'm not going to say that he was necessarily the most respected member of the Senate that I ever served with but he was probably the person of all the years that I've served here that drew the most attention when he rose to speak. He didn't speak often but when Sam Collins spoke people listened and, more often than not, his bride would be sitting in the back of the Chamber. She traveled here with him many, many times and was a bit of a fixture here, and I just happened to notice that this morning she had passed away in the obituary of the paper. So I would request that when the Senate adjourns today it adjourn in the memory of Mrs. Samuel Collins - Dorothy Collins. Thank you.

All matters thus acted upon were ordered sent down forthwith for concurrence.

On motion by Senator CARPENTER of Aroostook, ADJOURNED until Tuesday, June 26, 2018 at 12:30 in the afternoon in memory of and lasting tribute to Dorothy Collins of Rockland.
