ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Tuesday
February 7, 2017

Senate called to order by President Michael D. Thibodeau of Waldo County.

Prayer by Pastor Jordan Shaw, Trinity United Methodist Church in Farmington.

PASTOR SHAW: Thank you for the invitation. Let us be in a spirit of prayer. Holy One, all of life begins and ends with You. You created us and called us good. You remind us of Your goodness with warm sunshine with a bright blue backdrop on a winter day, the unbridled laughter of children, and through sights of a friend's face. We often forget, Loving One, we forget that You created us, that You called us good, and You called others, often different than we are, good as well. We allow political ideologies and other human constructed barriers to separate us. When we allow these things to separate us we forget the words of the Old Testament prophets. Mandates of our varying faiths; treat strangers among you like family for you were once a stranger in a strange land. Act justly, love mercy, walk humbly with God. We forget the words of Jesus, his command to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, and visit the imprisoned. We forget the words of the Quran, the mandate to care for the poor with dignity and respect. When we focus on our divisions the vulnerable suffer. The people on the edge of homelessness, starvation, and addiction break our hearts, O Holy One. Break our hearts at the sight of the things that break Your heart. Give us the courage to stand up to rhetoric that is counter to the vision of the abundant community laid out in our sacred texts where the poor are honored, where wealth is distributed so that everyone might have a little bit and whoever has a surplus gives more so that those who do not have enough may have enough to put food on the table and to keep a roof over their head. Give us the courage to embrace the challenge of our sacred texts. Like You envision, a beloved community; a community that embraces all people for who they are; lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgendered or straight, Caucasian or Black, Native American and new emigrant, people from the United States and people from all over the world. A beloved community that celebrates our diversity instead of spreading fear. Give us the courage, O Holy One, to work together to protect the most vulnerable in our communities and to have ears to listen to one another, hearts to love one another, and the courage to always do what is right, regardless of political persuasion. This we pray in the name of all that is holy. Amen.

Pledge of Allegiance led by Senator Justin M. Chenette of York County.

Dear President Thibodeau:

Pursuant to 5 M.R.S.A., Section 12023, please consider this the letter of transmittal for the required report from the University of Maine System due by February 1, 2017.

As provided in law and corresponding University policy and practice, there are legitimate reasons for waiving competitive procurement as part of standard procurement policy and all of the purchases in this report are consistent with that. For example, within the report that follows, a majority of the expenses for which waivers were granted involve purchases as required or provided in a grant awarded to the University or a library acquisition, as distinct from the University's purchases of general operating supplies and services.

Please contact me if you have any questions or need additional information.

Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Katz.

Senator KATZ: Thank you, Mr. President and men and women of the Senate. You know in the Legislature we appropriate about $6 billion a year General Fund money and I think wonder sometimes if we are really getting our bang for our buck in particular programs and are never really sure. I think if there's one program, Mr. President, that we know is working, and we know that our dollars are well spent, it has to be the Jobs for Maine's Graduates. This program deals with kids who are at risk in our junior high schools and our high schools and, through their participation in this program, end up with a graduation rate of high school that is actually higher than that of our peers. They get admitted to colleges. They articulate in colleges. They stay in colleges. The program has been a huge success as it extended, as I said, into the junior high schools. It's now actually in freshman year in college; has proposals to deal with foster kid populations. It's just a real success and I'm so happy that, among other places where Jobs for Maine's Graduates is, it's now at Cony High School. So the Kennebec Valley Chamber of Commerce, in its award, made an excellent choice here. I know that they're present in many of our, if not all of our, 35 Senate Districts and could not be more deserving of this honor. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Hancock, Senator Langley.

Senator LANGLEY: Thank you, Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, I, too, rise to congratulate Jobs for Maine's Graduates on receiving this award. They are really and truly a great partner in our education system. They do, indeed, help students transition from middle school through high school. Most recently they've add the post-secondary piece in the past few years of where they saw where the ball might be being dropped and where students may fall through the cracks. When we've had folks come and support JMG in the Education Committee from the schools and the school systems they seem them as a valuable partner, providing services well above and beyond what schools may be able to do on their own. With that, I congratulate them on this award and thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Aroostook, Senator Jackson.

Senator JACKSON: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I, too, would like to rise and offer my congratulations to the Kennebec Valley Jobs for Maine's Graduates. Mr. Larrabee and all the staff throughout the state, as a father of young son that didn't have a whole lot of interest in going to high school, all he wanted to do was actually work in the woods for a living, the Jobs for Maine's Graduates program went out of their way to keep him in high school, did everything they could to make sure that his interests was sparked, and, as parents, I couldn't be more appreciative of what they did for my son, and I know that they're doing that for people all around the state. It's a tremendous program. I certainly join Senator Katz and Senator Langley in support of this, and the entire Senate. Thank you for what you do. Certainly much appreciated by myself and many others across the state.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Millett.

Senator MILLETT: Thank you, Mr. President. I, too, rise to congratulate Jobs for Maine's Graduates program. As someone who's served in the Education Committee for the past four years, I have become very closely aware of the tremendous work that they do across the State of Maine, starting with foster children and providing them that extra support to help them become successful and contributing members to our state. Then expanding to a group of students that tend to often go unnoticed and help them develop connections and ties to really close community and find their legs in the education world and beyond with job skills and likes of which. It's an impressive program. They are now going into our community colleges to make sure that they can attain some higher education, which we all know is very important to the economic welfare of our state. So they're a wonderful partner for us in the education world and I congratulate them on their work.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Knox, Senator Miramant.

Senator MIRAMANT: Thank you, Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, I had exposure to this program in our area and it's been a wonderful experience for our children at different grade levels. They also have ties to my family. My niece works in the program, so I've seen or heard of the inside workings of it. One of the things I've always advocated for in education is that we need students, the way they learn, and I know that with some of the programs that have come through it's been hard to veer off the path that they start down. This program, its path and mission is to meet students the way they learn and they've been very successful at it, from all the different sides that I've seen. I congratulate them, heartily, for their efforts and for maintaining it over a period of years now, to have great successes so that their graduates are now teaching in the program. That's a real success story in my mind.

PASSED.

Sent down for concurrence.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair is pleased to recognize in the rear of the Chamber Craig Larrabee, Director of the Maine JMG program. Would he please rise and accept the greetings of the Senate.
