SUMMARY

This bill creates a new section in the Maine Human Rights Act that states it is unlawful discrimination for a public entity to discriminate against an individual, exclude an individual from participation in a service, program or activity of that public entity or otherwise deny to an individual the benefits of a service, program or activity of that public entity by reason of the individual's race or color, sex, sexual orientation or gender identity, age, physical or mental disability, religion, ancestry or national origin. It amends existing sections of the Maine Human Rights Act to create consistency with the new section.
