Correctional/Judicial Impact: Establishes new Class B and Class C crimes; increases correctional and judicial costs. The bill changes one crime from Class C to Class B and 6 crimes from Class D to Class C. The current average cost of incarcerating one individual for a single year is $55,203.

The additional workload associated with the minimal number of new felony cases filed in the court system does not require additional funding at this time.
 The collection of additional fine revenue associated with increasing the class of crime for the prohibited possession of a firearm by certain persons will increase General Fund and dedicated revenue by minor amounts.
