SUMMARY

Part A of this amendment updates references to the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986 contained in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 36 to refer to the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through February 9, 2018, for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2017 and for any prior tax years as specifically provided by the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. This Part primarily affects the State's income and estate tax laws.

Part B of this amendment also makes the following changes to the individual income tax:

Sections B-1 through B-6 and B-20 reduce the individual income tax for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2018 by eliminating the tax on taxable income up to $4,150 for single individuals and head of household filers and up to $8,300 for individuals filing married joint returns or surviving spouses permitted to file a joint return. The current rate structure consists of 5.8%, 6.75%, and 7.15% taxable income brackets.

Sections B-7, B-8, B-21, and B-22 change the Maine standard deduction to conform to the federal standard deduction and increases the amount at which the standard deduction begins to phase out. Applies to tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2018.

Section B-9 clarifies that the income taxes and sales and use taxes itemized deduction subtraction does not reduce the amount of property and other taxes that may be claimed as a Maine itemized deduction.

Sections B-10, B-11, and B-22 increase the amount at which the Maine itemized deduction begins to phase out. Applies to tax year beginning on or after January 1, 2018.

Sections B-12 through B-18 amend the sales tax fairness credit and the property tax fairness credit by replacing references to the number of exemptions claimed on the taxpayer's return with references to dependents claimed under the federal child tax credits and removing the requirement to add the federal domestic production activities deduction to income for purposes of the programs in response to federal tax changes made in the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017.

Section B-19 establishes a new tax credit equal to $500 for each qualifying child and dependent of the taxpayer for whom the federal child tax credit pursuant to the Code, Section 24 is claimed for the same taxable year. The new credit is available for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2018.

Part C of this amendment also makes the following changes to the individual and corporate income taxes:

Sections C-1 and C-4 repeal Maine's domestic production activities deduction add-back. The related federal deduction is repealed for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2018.

Sections C-2, C-5, and C-7 repeal the addition modifications that reverse, for Maine tax purposes, the effects of the federal bonus depreciation deduction and repeals the related Maine capital investment tax credit. Both changes apply to tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2018.

Section C-3 provides that any amount claimed as a special deduction provided by IRC 199A must be added back to federal taxable income for purposes of calculating income tax liability of estates and trusts under chapters 809 and 811. Individual taxpayers are not allowed the special deduction provided by IRC 199A in calculating Maine taxable income; this section provides similar treatment to estates and trusts.

Section C-6 eliminates the corporate alternative minimum tax for tax years beginning after December 31, 2017.

Part D makes the following corporate income tax changes in regards to the federal mandatory repatriation of deferred foreign income under United States Public Law 115-97 and the taxation of dividends and "subpart F income":

Section D-1 creates an addition modification in the amount of the “participation exemption” claimed in accordance with the Code, Section 965(c).

Section D-2 removes obsolete language from the existing dividends received subtraction and excludes from dividend income “subpart F income,” as defined in the Code, Section 952 and deferred foreign income, included in accordance with Code, Section 965.

Section D-3 creates a subtraction modification for an amount equal to fifty percent of the apportionable “subpart F income,” as defined in the Code, Section 952, included in federal gross income by the taxpayer. This section codifies the longstanding administrative practice of applying the existing dividends received subtraction to “subpart F income” as well as dividends.

Section D-4 creates a subtraction modification for an amount equal to eighty percent of the apportionable deferred foreign income included in federal gross income, pursuant to the Code, Section 965(a) and (b), by the taxpayer.

Part E reduces corporate income tax rates beginning in 2020. The current rate structure for taxable corporations consists of 3.5%, 7.93%, 8.33% and 8.93% taxable income brackets. The proposed rate structure for tax years beginning after December 31, 2019 consists of 3.5%, 7.93%, and 8.33% taxable income brackets.
