24 SUMMARY

25 The purpose of this bill is to facilitate the development of young readers by:

26 1. Requiring the Commissioner of Education to establish a program to encourage the 27 early exposure of infants and children in the State to books and reading. The bill directs 28 the commissioner to coordinate the Department of Education's efforts with those of any 29 other agency of government, individual, group, foundation or corporation that has 30 established a program to encourage early reading and authorizes the acceptance of any 31 funds for these purposes from any other agency of government, individual, group, 32 foundation or corporation; and

33 2. Requiring that beginning with the 2017-2018 school year, school units that offer 34 kindergarten programs provide full-day kindergarten programs.
