HEATHER J.R. PRIEST
Clerk

1 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

2 Sec. 1. 1 MRSA §402, sub-§3, ¶C-1 is enacted to read:

3 C-1. Information contained in a communication between a constituent and an elected
4 official if the information:

5 (1) Is of a personal nature, consisting of:

6 (a) An individual's medical information of any kind, including information
7 pertaining to diagnosis or treatment of mental or emotional disorders;

8 (b) Credit or financial information;

9 (c) Information pertaining to the personal history, general character or 10 conduct of the constituent or any member of the constituent's immediate 11 family;

12 (d) Complaints, charges of misconduct, replies to complaints or charges of 13 misconduct or memoranda or other materials pertaining to disciplinary 14 action; or

15 (e) An individual's social security number; or

16 (2) Would be confidential if it were in the possession of another public agency or 17 official;

18 SUMMARY

19 This bill consists of the recommendations of the majority of the members of the 20 legislative subcommittee of the Right to Know Advisory Committee in response to 21 Resolve 2009, chapter 184.

22 This bill amends the definition of "public record" in the freedom of access laws to
23 provide that certain information in communications between constituents and elected
24 officials is not a public record. Specifically, information is not a public record if the 25 information would be confidential if it were in the possession of another public agency or
26 official or if the information is of a personal nature. Information of a personal nature 27 consists of:

28 1. An individual's medical information of any kind, including information pertaining 29 to diagnosis or treatment of mental or emotional disorders;

30 2. Credit or financial information;

31 3. Information pertaining to the personal history, general character or conduct of the 32 constituent or any member of the constituent's immediate family;

33 4. Complaints, charges of misconduct, replies to complaints or charges of 34 misconduct or memoranda or other materials pertaining to disciplinary action; or

35 5. An individual's social security number.
