1 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

2 Sec. 1. 25 MRSA §2804-C, sub-§6 is enacted to read:

3 6. Fee waiver for veterans of the United States Armed Forces who served as 4 military police officers. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, a fee may 5 not be charged for the course required by this section if the person:

6 A. Is an honorably discharged veteran of the United States Armed Forces who served 7 as a military police officer and has been hired for or received a conditional offer of 8 full-time employment as a law enforcement officer;

9 B. Has been certified by the board as satisfying all preservice training requirements 10 under section 2804-B; and

11 C. Is a graduate of a formal United States Armed Forces police academy or training 12 program and was authorized by law to engage in or supervise the prevention or 13 detection of any violation of law or investigation, prosecution or incarceration of any 14 person for any violation of law and had statutory powers of arrest or apprehension 15 under the United States Uniform Code of Military Justice or successor military 16 judicial code and meets the following criteria:

17 (1) Has 5 years' supervisory experience in military law enforcement in a military 18 pay grade of at least E-5 or its equivalent; or

19 (2) Has 3 years' active service experience in military law enforcement and has 20 completed an associate degree or higher in criminal justice from an accredited 21 postsecondary educational institution.

22 SUMMARY

23 This bill provides a waiver of the fee charged for the basic training course at the 24 Maine Criminal Justice Academy for honorably discharged veterans of the United States 25 Armed Forces who served as military police officers and who have been hired for or have 26 received conditional offers of full-time employment as law enforcement officers if the 27 veterans' military experience and education meet certain criteria.
