Secretary of the Senate

Presented by Senator SAVIELLO of Franklin.

1 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

2 Sec. 1. 19-A MRSA §951-A, sub-§13 is enacted to read:

3 13. Domestic violence. The court may not award spousal support to a party who has 4 violated Title 17-A, section 207-A, 209-A, 210-B or 210-C or a similar provision from 5 another jurisdiction if the opposing party was the victim. A violation under this 6 subsection may be proved by providing the court with a certified copy of the conviction 7 from the court in which the matter was adjudicated or, if the violation has been alleged 8 but did not result in a criminal conviction, the court may determine that a violation of 9 Title 17-A, section 207-A, 209-A, 210-B or 210-C or a similar provision from another 10 jurisdiction occurred by a preponderance of the evidence submitted by the opposing 11 party.

12 Sec. 2. 19-A MRSA §953, sub-§10 is enacted to read:

13 10. Domestic violence. The court may not award any portion of any retirement
14 benefits of an opposing party to a party who has violated Title 17-A, section 207-A, 15 209-A, 210-B or 210-C or a similar provision from another jurisdiction if the opposing 16 party was the victim. A violation under this subsection may be proved by providing the 17 court with a certified copy of the conviction from the court in which the matter was 18 adjudicated or, if the violation has been alleged but did not result in a criminal conviction, 19 the court may determine that a violation of Title 17-A, section 207-A, 209-A, 210-B or 20 210-C or a similar provision from another jurisdiction occurred by a preponderance of the 21 evidence submitted by the opposing party.

22 Sec. 3. 19-A MRSA §1051, sub-§3 is enacted to read:

23 3. Domestic violence. This section does not apply to a party who has violated Title
24 17-A, section 207-A, 209-A, 210-B or 210-C or a similar provision from another 25 jurisdiction, who may not continue to use the opposing party's name if the opposing party
26 was the victim. A violation under this subsection may be proved by providing the court 27 with a certified copy of the conviction from the court in which the matter was adjudicated 28 or, if the violation has been alleged but did not result in a criminal conviction, the court
29 may determine that a violation of Title 17-A, section 207-A, 209-A, 210-B or 210-C or a 30 similar provision from another jurisdiction occurred by a preponderance of the evidence 31 submitted by the opposing party. This subsection does not apply if the names of the 32 parties were identical before the marriage.

33 SUMMARY

34 This bill prohibits in a divorce action the awarding of spousal support or retirement 35 benefits to a party if the party has been convicted of or proved by a preponderance of the 36 evidence to have committed domestic violence assault, domestic violence criminal 37 threatening, domestic violence terrorizing or domestic violence stalking and the other 38 party was the victim. The bill also prohibits the party from continuing to use the victim's 39 name unless the names of the parties were identical before the marriage.
