28 29	Amend the bill by relettering or renumbering any nonconsecutive Part letter or section number to read consecutively.
30	SUMMARY
31 32 33 34 35 36	This amendment provides that the aquaculture license established in the bill expires on April 30th of each year. The amendment provides an exemption to the requirement to hold an aquaculture license for a holder of a limited-purpose aquaculture license who does not sell the organisms cultured under that license. The amendment establishes that an aquaculture license is not required in order to undertake aquaculture activities until May 1, 2018, until which date other licenses are required for those activities.
