12 'Sec. 3. 21-A MRSA §1053-C is enacted to read:

13 §1053-C. Caucus political action committees

14 1. Definitions. As used in this section, unless the context otherwise indicates, the 15 following terms have the following meanings.

16 A. "House caucus leader" means a member of a political party in the House of 17 Representatives who has been elected the leader of that political party in the House of 18 Representatives. For purposes of this paragraph, if the Speaker of the House of 19 Representatives is a member of a political party, the Speaker of the House of 20 Representatives is deemed the House caucus leader of that political party.

21 B. "Political party" has the same meaning as "party" as defined by section 1, 22 subsection 28.

23 C. "Senate caucus leader" means a member of a political party in the Senate who has 24 been elected the leader of that political party in the Senate. For purposes of this 25 paragraph, if the President of the Senate is a member of a political party, the 26 President of the Senate is deemed the Senate caucus leader of that political party.

27 2. Designation of caucus political action committee. Each Senate caucus leader 28 and each House caucus leader may designate one caucus political action committee to 29 promote the election of nominees of the caucus leader's political party to the body of the 30 Legislature of which the caucus leader is a member. The designation must be made in a 31 letter to the commission and remains effective until a new designation is made in a letter 32 to the commission from the caucus leader of the same political party and same body of 33 the Legislature.'

34 Amend the bill by relettering or renumbering any nonconsecutive Part letter or 35 section number to read consecutively.

36 SUMMARY

37 This amendment, which is the majority report of the committee, clarifies the process
38 for the designation of caucus political action committees by specifying that each Senate
39 caucus leader and each House caucus leader may designate one caucus political action 40 committee to promote the election of nominees of the caucus leader's political party to the

1 body of the Legislature of which that caucus leader is a member. Under the amendment, 2 a caucus leader is a member of a political party in a body of the Legislature who has been 3 elected the leader of that political party in that body of the Legislature. If the President of 4 the Senate or the Speaker of the House is a member of a political party, the President of 5 the Senate or Speaker of the House is the caucus leader of that political party in the 6 respective body of the Legislature.

7 The amendment also makes technical changes to the law governing the appointment
8 of members of the Commission on Governmental Ethics and Election Practices.
9 Specifically, in the provisions outlining who has the authority to propose individuals for 10 appointment to the commission, the phrases "appointed leader from each political party in 11 the Senate" and "appointed leader from each political party in the House of 12 Representatives" are replaced with the newly defined terms "Senate caucus leader" and 13 "House caucus leader."
