16 §6030-C. Residential energy efficiency disclosure statement

17 1. Energy efficiency disclosure. A landlord or other person who on behalf of a 18 landlord enters into a lease or tenancy at will agreement for residential property that will 19 be used by a tenant or lessee as a primary residence shall provide to potential tenants or 20 lessees, upon request by those tenants or lessees, a residential energy efficiency 21 disclosure statement in accordance with Title 35-A, section 10117, subsection 1 that 22 includes, but is not limited to, information about the energy efficiency of the property.

23 2. Provision of statement. A landlord or other person who on behalf of a landlord
24 enters into a lease or tenancy at will agreement shall provide the residential energy 25 efficiency disclosure statement required under subsection 1 in accordance with this 26 subsection. The landlord or other person who on behalf of a landlord enters into a lease 27 or tenancy at will agreement shall provide the statement to any person who requests the 28 statement in person ~~and shall post the statement in a prominent location in a property that~~ 29 ~~is being offered for rent or lease.~~ Before a tenant or lessee enters into a contract or pays a 30 deposit to rent or lease a property, the landlord or other person who on behalf of a 31 landlord enters into a lease or tenancy at will agreement shall provide the statement to the 32 tenant or lessee, obtain the tenant's or lessee's signature on the statement and sign the 33 statement. The landlord or other person who on behalf of a landlord enters into a lease or 34 tenancy at will agreement shall retain the signed statement for a minimum of 7 years.

35 Sec. 15. 14 MRSA §6030-D, sub-§1, as amended by PL 2009, c. 566, §19, is 36 repealed and the following enacted in its place:

37 1. Testing. Beginning January 1, 2010, a landlord or other person who purchases or 38 otherwise obtains a residential building to be used as rental property shall have the air of 39 the residential building tested for the presence of radon. A test required to be performed

1 under this section is only required to be performed on those residential units of the 2 building located on the lowest level of the building. The test must be conducted by a
3 person registered with the Department of Health and Human Services pursuant to Title 4 22, chapter 165.

5 SUMMARY

6 This bill makes changes to the residential rental property laws, including:

7 1. Eliminating the presumption that a forcible entry and detainer action commencing 8 after a tenant files a fair housing complaint is retaliatory;

9 2. Removing, in a forcible entry and detainer action, the tenant's affirmative defense
10 that the landlord failed to provide reasonable accommodation pursuant to the Maine
11 Human Rights Act or the federal Fair Housing Act;

12 3. Preventing the tenant from raising the presumption of retaliation if the forcible 13 entry and detainer action is being brought for failure to pay the rent or substantial damage 14 to the premises by the tenant;

15 4. Requiring a tenant disputing a forcible entry and detainer action to submit an 16 affidavit to the court that the tenant is not in arrears in payment of the rent as of the date 17 of the filing of the forcible entry and detainer action;

18 5. Changing the responsibilities of a landlord regarding property abandoned by the 19 tenant, including allowing the landlord to require that the tenant pay any rent or storage 20 fees to the landlord prior to the landlord's releasing the property;

21 6. Removing the requirement that the landlord disclose to a prospective tenant the 22 existence of a bedbug infestation in a neighboring unit and the history of inspection of the 23 rental units;

24 7. Requiring the landlord to provide energy efficiency disclosures only upon request 25 by a prospective tenant; and 26 8. Amending the radon testing requirements to require testing only when the 27 residential rental property is acquired by a landlord and only for those units on the lowest 28 level of that residential property.
