SUMMARY

This amendment includes both technical and substantive changes to the laws.

- This amendment designates the provisions of the bill as Part A.
- 3 4 5

This amendment deletes sections 9, 14, 25, 32, 33, 39, 40 and 43 from the bill. Sections 32, 33 and 43 are added to the amendment with changes in Part B.

6 Part B includes technical corrections to sections originally printed in the bill. Section 7 1 is the same as section 32 of the bill except that it incorporates the amendment made by 8 Public Law 2011, chapter 113. Section 2 is the same as section 33 of the bill. Section 3 9 is a corrected version of section 43 of the bill. Section 4 makes the amendments to the 10 Maine Limited Liability Company Act take effect July 1, 2011, which is the date on 11 which the Maine Limited Liability Company Act takes effect.

Part C makes technical corrections. Section 1 corrects the subject-verb agreement in the laws governing the Maine Commission on Indigent Legal Services. Section 2 repeals a section of law that was enacted in 1987 that had a purpose only through 1989. Section corrects a cross-reference. Sections 4 and 5 correct clerical errors by changing the word for" to "or" in 2 subsections within the sex offender registry laws. Sections 6 and 7 effect the repeal of language relating to a commission that was repealed in 1992.

18 Part D includes changes that may be considered substantive. Section 1 clarifies that the new subsection added by Public Law 2011, chapter 122 applies to only residential 19 leases or contracts. Section 1 is not intended to affect the application or interpretation of 20 21 any other provision of law. Sections 2 to 5 correct technical issues in language adopted pursuant to Public Law 2011, chapter 60 passed earlier in the session and ensure that 22 implementation of the law occur. Sections 2 to 5 incorporate situations inadvertently left 23 out of Public Law 2011, chapter 60, including death of a person in custody in a state or 24 25 county detention facility, in custody on the way to or from a courthouse and while being transported to or from one of the facilities listed even if the transport is not being done to 26 take the person to another of the facilities. By using the word "person" instead of 27 "prisoner" it also covers juveniles who are in custody. Section 4 adds similar provisions 28 29 for persons in custody of municipal law enforcement officers. Sections 2 to 5 correct language that would inadvertently require the Commissioner of Corrections to notify a 30 medical examiner of a death about which the commissioner would not know, such as that 31 32 of an arrestee who dies while being taken from a local lockup to the county jail by a municipal police officer. The amendment puts the responsibility for notification on the 33 correct official. It also substitutes "sheriff or jailer" in the county jail provision for the 34 same reason. Other changes clarify each provision to accurately reflect the type of 35 situation involved at each level, whether state, county or local. Section 6 provides that 36 37 the amendment made by section 1 takes effect 90 days after the adjournment of the First Regular Session of the 125th Legislature, which is the effective date of Public Law 2011, 38 39 chapter 122 and chapter 60.

Part E makes substantive changes to carry out the intent of the Joint Standing Committee on Environment and Natural Resources concerning mercury-added thermostats. Several sections of L.D. 1398, enacted as Public Law 2011, chapter 206, were inadvertently not removed from the bill by both the majority and minority committee amendments. This Part resolves that oversight by amending the Maine

COMMITTEE AMENDMENT " " to H.P. 1089, L.D. 1480

Revised Statutes, Title 38, section 1665-B to reinstate the law as it existed prior to the enactment of Public Law 2011, chapter 206. Chapter 206 took effect on June 3, 2011.
 Part E includes a retroactive effective date provision to make the entire Part apply retroactively to June 3, 2011.

5 Part F corrects a clerical error in Public Law 2011, chapter 172 concerning teacher 6 contracts. This is a substantive change that carries out the intent of the Joint Standing 7 Committee on Education and Cultural Affairs. This Part takes effect 90 days after the 8 adjournment of the First Regular Session of the 125th Legislature, which is when chapter 9 172 takes effect.

Part G corrects the membership changes in the Advisory Committee on College Savings enacted by Public Law 2011, chapter 150 as intended by the Joint Standing Committee on Education and Cultural Affairs. Part G deletes wording that was inadvertently retained and corrects the effective date and transition language.
