Presented by Senator DILL of Penobscot. (BY REQUEST) Cosponsored by Representative STANLEY of Medway.

1 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

2 Sec. 1. 26 MRSA §629-C is enacted to read:

3 §629-C. Mileage reimbursement

9

An employer that requires an employee who travels as a sales representative to use the employee's privately owned automobile in order to perform the employee's duties shall reimburse the employee at at least the same rate per mile as provided in Title 5, section 8. Reimbursement for mileage under this section is considered wages for purposes of sections 621-A and 626.

SUMMARY

10 This bill requires an employer to provide mileage reimbursement for an employee 11 who travels as a sales representative who is required to use the employee's private 12 automobile to perform the employee's duties. This reimbursement is included as wages 13 for purposes of the laws requiring timely and full payment of wages and for wages due at 14 cessation of employment.
