Joint Resolution in Memoriam:

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-8) Michael Frederick Estrada, of Rome. Mr. Estrada launched his journalism career in Bennington, Vermont, covering sports for the local paper. He later moved to central Maine and began a career in radio broadcasting. In 1992, alongside fellow radio DJ "Tom O," he co-founded The Mountain Morning Show on WTOS, bringing humor, news and entertainment to listeners across Maine and beyond each morning. In recognition of their outstanding contributions during their 33-year partnership, Mr. Mike and Tom O were inducted into the Maine Association of Broadcasters Hall of Fame in 2018. In addition to the sports journalism of his early career, Mr. Estrada penned a weekly Mr. Mike's Musings column and was the mastermind behind The Mountain Morning Show's hilarious Wacky Zany Goofy Radio-type Quiz Shows. He lent his broadcast voice to hundreds of local football games, field hockey matchups and swim meets and was a fixture at annual state high school basketball tournaments. Mr. Estrada will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family, friends and community;

Expressions of Legislative Sentiment recognizing:

(4-2) Don and Rachel Booker, of Bradford, on Mr. Booker's retirement as pastor of Bradford Baptist Church after over 45 years of service. Mr. Booker started attending Bradford Baptist church at the age of 9 when his father, Reverend Clarence Booker, became pastor. In 1978, his father unexpectedly passed away, leaving the church without a pastor. Mr. Booker began filling the pulpit and in 1979 was hired as pastor. Over the years, Mr. Booker has shepherded the church through missions and ministries for teens, seniors, nursing homes and jails. We commend Mr. and Mrs. Booker for their friendship, guidance and support of the Bradford Baptist Church congregation. We extend our appreciation and best wishes;

Whether managing study halls, organizing school resources or running the front office for the middle and high school divisions, she brought structure, care and a quiet strength to everything she touched. Her final chapter of service came with the Christian Civic League of Maine, where she has spent the last decade as Assistant Development Director. For 18 years, he shaped young lives, mentored fellow educators and advanced Christian education in Maine. In 2010, he stepped into a new arena of ministry as Executive Director of the Christian Civic League of Maine, working to inspire pastors and church leaders to engage with the cultural and political landscape through the Church Ambassador Network.
