Joint Resolutions

Joint Resolutions in Memoriam:

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-4) Isaac Kenneth Beal, of Beals. Mr. Beal started lobster fishing at 13 years of age and retired at 79 years of age, fishing out of Pigeon Hill from 1961 to 1973 before returning to fish out of Beals Island. In addition to lobstering, he earned a living clamming, worming and harvesting periwinkles, and he seined for herring with his two eldest sons for several years. He and his wife Eva ran their own seafood company, Old Salt Seafood, with him and his sons dragging for mussels, scallops, quahogs and urchins. In the early 1990s, he started raising Atlantic salmon for Nordic Enterprises. When he was young, he started working in his father's shop building wooden lobster boats and personally built row boats or outboards simultaneously during the winter and spring months until 1979. These boats were seen in harbors throughout New England, and some are still around today. Together, they built the lobster boat "Christopher" in 1976. After his father had passed in 1981, he acquired the boat for lobster fishing. He successfully raced the "Christopher" on the Maine Lobster Boat Racing circuit for several years, garnering over 100 wins. He recently had started building wooden half-model boats for his family and friends. In March 2025, he was inducted into the Maine Boat Builders Hall of Fame. In 2000, he started a boat mooring business, Ike's Mooring Service, to service the surrounding fishing community. Active in his community, he was involved with the Boy Scouts as a troop leader while his sons were in school. He also was a member of the Beals Island Harbor Committee and was instrumental in acquiring the property for and developing the Beals Town Landing. He served as Assistant Harbor Master and Harbor Master for many years. Mr. Beal will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family, friends and community;

HLS 530

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-5) Kenneth "Kenny" Leaton Webber, Jr., of Franklin. Over the years, Mr. Webber worked as a stocking clerk at grocery stores, as a laborer, in sales, in carpentry and on the ocean dragging mussels, lobstering and digging worms. Most recently, he drove a dump truck for Atherton Construction. As a youth, he found his faith and regularly attended church at the Church of Life and Praise under the ministry of Pastor James Heard. Mr. Webber will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family, friends and community;

HLS 558

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-6) Valaree Jean Langley-Foss, of Canaan. Early in her working life, Mrs. Langley-Foss was a physical therapy aide at Pleasant Hill Nursing Home in Fairfield. She continued her career at Inland Hospital in Waterville working as a phlebotomist and lab tech supervisor. After leaving Inland Hospital, she worked for a time at a small doctor's office. In 1986, after enrolling her daughters Tavi and Stefanie in the local rec center track and field program in Skowhegan, she began what came to be a 38-year career in track and field officiating. Mrs. Langley-Foss was a Master Level Track and Field official, able to officiate any event. She served as president of USA Track and Field Maine for many years and worked multiple times at the Olympic Trials in Eugene, Oregon. She was instrumental in bringing the USATF National Masters Track and Field meets to the University of Maine and in Maine Track and Field's receiving awards every year at national conventions for maintained memberships and qualifying achievements. In 2009, she was awarded the James Gray Award, which is given to an official who has given a lifetime to leading, mentoring and motivating others in the various venues of track and field. Mrs. Langley-Foss will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family, friends and community;

HLS 562

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-7) Eugene Keith Fogg, of Lowell. Mr. Fogg will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family, friends and community;

HLS 563

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-8) the Honorable Jeffrey Evangelos, of Friendship. Mr. Evangelos began his public service career in Vanceboro and, in 1976 at the age of 23, became the youngest town manager in the State, serving the town of Warren. Under his leadership, the town advanced significant projects. Later, as Business Manager of School Administrative District 40 for 15 years, he oversaw the construction of five schools, shaping the educational future of countless Maine students. He founded Central Asian Artifacts, an import company, and traveled to Pakistan nearly 20 times, forming lasting friendships. He served in the Maine House of Representatives from 2012 to 2016, representing Cushing, Union, Warren and Friendship, and again from 2018 to 2022, representing Friendship, Waldoboro and Washington, as an Independent. In the Legislature, he championed criminal justice reform, Wabanaki sovereignty and the protection of Maine's fishing communities. Among his most meaningful efforts was leading a proposal to restore parole in Maine following its abolition in 1976. Even after leaving elected office, he continued to visit the Maine State Prison weekly, assisting with innocence petitions and offering mentorship and friendship to incarcerated men. Mr. Evangelos will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family, friends and community;
